

السلام عليكم ورحمة الله وبركاته

Ever increasing praise be to Allah, and may his Blessings and peace be upon our leader Muhammad, as well as his Family and Companions

Hopefully you, the reader, are in the best of health and of Eeman. When you start to go through this collection, go through it with best of intentions with sole intention for pleasing Allah (SWT).

To the knowledge seeker: I recommend you go through the books about etiquette and manners of seeking knowledge before reading the other books if you are serious about gaining knowledge in order to know how to best implement what you learn in sha'a Allah.

If you have come across this drive and what it contains, please download all the pdf's to your personal computer and then share the link with others on your social media in order to better benefit more on the religion of Islam and share these books with everybody. In sha'a Allah these books can be a form of sadaqa jariya for each person who passes the link as well as the books along.

May Allah bless the people who work behind Kalamullah.com because that is the source of these books and may their work be preserved in sha'a Allah.

Jazakum Allah khairan
